Yogiville India Property Code of Conduct

General Requirements

1. You agree to support and abide to the Child Protection Policy as it relates to the Sita Devi Charity School, who lease property adjacent to Yogiville
2. No smoking, alcohol or drugs are to be taken or consumed on the premises
3. You will not be under the influence of drugs or alcohol whilst on Yogiville
4. You understand that no meat, fish or eggs are allowed on Yogiville premises. We follow the strict practices of Sattvic Vaishnam (no meat, no meat substance, no fish, no poultry, no eggs, no product meat derivatives, no onions, no garlic & no mushrooms). Our food is prepared fresh at meal times, following the principles of ayurveda.
5. You will behave and treat others in a fair way including other guests and Yogiville staff
6. You will maintain healthy boundaries with Yogiville staff, management and the visitors/guests to Yogiville.
7. If any problem arises, you will discuss this in a private manner with Yogiville management.
8. Any visitors who are non- residents at Yogiville are not entitled to stay or sleep at Yogiville without prior booking or consulting with Yogiville management (Laxman Prasad and informing by email to office@yogiville.com).
9. You understand that certain areas on Yogiville are out of bounds to day visitors. This is to ensure the privacy of Yogiville residents, for health and safety and you will respect this by not allowing friends or visitors onto these premises.
10. Communal premises are; temple, school, reception area but not behind the counter or inside the office, yoga shala. However if there are Yogiville residents/ paying guests you must inform your friend/ visitor that these areas will be out of bounds unless previously discussed and granted by Yogiville management.
11. If your visitor is at Yogiville at the time of prasadam (meal times) and you serve them food, you will need to offer monetary donation of 500 rupees towards covering the cost of their food unless it is a festival or an open event for all people to join.
12. If you bring any visitors to Yogiville please ensure that you give them a copy of Yogiville disclaimer and code of conduct that will be with the management. They will need to sign this and hand it back to the management.
13. With prior consent from management on the ground, if you visit the school please ensure that you maintain healthy boundaries with children and teachers alike. Any sexual, physical or emotional harassment will be considered as a breach of behaviour and liable for legal action.
14. If you break or damage any items or property during your stay you understand that you are responsible to pay for its replacement or repair to the standard it was.
15. You will not give any money or gifts to the local people, children or Yogiville staff without first consulting with Yogiville management. If you want to help or give something it will be done openly to minimise the local people and Yogiville staff's expectations from other guests present and future.
16. Any tips and feedback will be given to the management and this will then be distributed to the people/ persons concerned openly and transparently.
17. You will respect nature by not bringing too much plastic and unnecessary packaging to Yogiville.
